

THE REAL STORY OF CREATION

In the beginning God made man, then realized He could do better, so He then made woman. While she was close to perfection, all was not without flaw. Now it came to God if He took the spirit and courage of man and combined that with the grace and beauty of woman He would create the perfect creature. After His work was completed and He saw He had fulfilled His goal, God took a break and called His creation H O R S E.
